

"Every spring is the only spring, a perpetual astonishment."

—ELLIS PETERS

Belgian painter Isabelle de Borchgrave incorporated a profusion of blossoms into her Millefleurs pattern for Gien. The pieces shown here—teapot, teacup and saucer, tablecloth, and dessert plates—evoke a cheerful ambience. Opposite:

Enhance teatime with a Coastline Imports creamer and sugar, a fanciful William Yeoward Crystal Buzzy Honey Jar with Spoon, and

Oohlong Market gold-and-silver spoons. This page, right: Gien Pont aux Choux dinner plates, Kim Seybert napkins,

and William Yeoward Crystal Elizabeth goblets complete each place setting. Above: Alongside Paperproducts Design napkins, Waterford Rebel barware sparkles on a beverage salver atop an April Cornell tablecloth.